

- Representing yourself as any form of birth control in an effort to spread the love.
- Representing yourself as any "male & female" devices.
- Misrepresenting yourself as the incorrect gender – I think you know who I mean.
- Any guy wearing a costume, with a matching "smaller" costume in an obnoxious place.
- The depiction or suggestion of feline abuse.
- The representation of or possession of any banned substances.
- Misrepresenting yourself as someone who actually lived through the 60's.
- Denying you actually lived through the 60's.
- Any costume that leaves "deposits" on the floor.
- Don't even consider costumes relating to Attica or Kent State!
- If you think it's a great idea, THE MAN will probably not be amused.

We, THE MAN, have taken notice of the fact that the title of this year's gathering is the "Halloween of Love". This does not in any way imply that illicit or immoral behavior will be tolerated. Costumes will be severely scrutinized, by we, THE MAN, for any deviant or sub-standard infractions.

Anyone exhibiting any improper behavior will be duly noted and properly watched by the establishment.

Cameras will be placed throughout the premises and your co-operation in capturing any illicit activity will be expected.

Following is a short example of what IS NOT acceptable as determined by we, THE MAN:

Can you dig it? This year's food contest is for:

the hippest
chili

And the grooviest dessert.

Life changing prizes will be given to those voted best by all.

Costumes will still be judged by those too square to get in the groove.

FAR OUT MAN! It's almost time for the hippest happening of the year. Yeah baby, it's the:

HALLOWEEN OF LOVE

Saturday, Oct. 30

starting at 7:00P.M.

at the Barnhart's pad.

It's the time of the season for flower power, peace and love. Beads, bell bottoms, incense & light shows. But first, here's the rap from "the Man".
Bummer.
