

10 YEARS AFTER

Can you believe we've been doing this for 10 years?

Remember when life was simpler?

Before there were rules.

Before the mooning.

Before the sweet potato incident.

Before the pellet dropping sheep.

Before the transvestites.

Before the condom & contraceptive sponge.

Oh, and before the breast exam machine!

Definitely before the breast exam machine.

How about we return to a time when life was easy and Halloween parties were respectable. When costumes were cartoon characters, candy, babies & religious figures. OK, there were a couple of hilljacks & the Grim Reaper, but for the most part everyone was quite civil and somewhat refined.

NAH! That'll never happen. So here goes.

SATURDAY OCT. 27th

7:00 P.M.

TEN YEARS AFTER A DECADE OF SHAME

It's been 10 year's since your humble hosts began this annual debacle with a surprise wedding. An event that will be re-enacted this year. We trust your choice of costume will display the level of love & respect you have for the renewing of their wedding vows. So before you make a final decision on what your costume will be for this year, ask yourself this question:

"Do I want to be the one to bring disgrace to this sacred event and ruin the solemn renewal of their wedding vows?"

COSTUME CONTEST (SEE ABOVE)

Of course there will be an award given to the most popular costume as voted by those too straight-laced to wear a costume.

FOOD CONTEST

This year's food themes will be the ever-popular chili cook-off & desserts with fabulous prizes going to "Best of Show" in a popular vote by those willing to gorge themselves with bowls upon bowls of chili and plates & plates of sweets.
